All,

I now have access to the LEAPS website. I have prepared and sent out an email to the entire email list (900 emails), with a teaser for a training symposium in the Fall of 2015. I have also provided the site information for LEAPS' FB page. Now that we are online with our registrants, I would like to keep the recipients interested in the upcoming symposium. I updated FB with a new submission this morning, as well.

The website should be updated soon with information regarding the September symposium, including dates, times, speakers and topic. I have not heard anything regarding status, other than Joseph's last email regarding a possible speaker.

As soon as there is additional information, please let me know. I will coordinate with Ed to get the website updated and open the registration, so we can begin taking money in. Thanks!

I know a college professor who specializes in the curriculum of Sex Trafficking involving minors. LEAPS colleagues,

I know a college professor who specializes in the curriculum of Sex Trafficking involving minors. Dr. Sims has educated several law enforcement agencies throughout the state on this crisis and is also employed with the county of San Bernardino Probation Dept. Well educated, well traveled and well received by the law enforcement community. Her presentations are generally 2 hours. Please let me know if this is something the board interested pursuing.

I understand but we are running out of time and it didn't appear to me that we we're going to locate a second presenter. Relative to the topic or not, I was just trying to be Mariano Rivera in the bottom of the 9th. Do we change the theme? or do we announce at the event that our second presenter had to cancel and we've brought someone in on short notice? Would that be reputational sabotage? I don't know. Unfortunately, my resources related to our theme are unavailable on the 16th but I can continue to ask around. Right now, just need to know what's in our best interest? What do we want to do?

James:

Thanks for stepping up to the plate. Great job on short/no notice.

We are LEAPS and this will be a leap to tie these two subjects together but, we might be able to adapt a theme or discard any theme and spin it as New Trends in Crime and Policing. We can focus on the reality of the Lone Wolf with Security responsibilities and the LE resource focus and drain and breakdown of social morays caused by the growth of Human Trafficking. Maybe you corporate folks can put a spin on it.

Thoughts?

I understand but we are running out of time and it didn't appear to me that we we're going to locate a second presenter. Relative to the topic or not, I was just trying to be Mariano Rivera in the bottom of the 9th. Do we change the theme? or do we announce at the event that our second presenter had to cancel and we've brought someone in on short notice? Would that be reputational sabotage? I don't know. Unfortunately, my resources related to our theme are unavailable on the 16th but I can continue to ask around. Right now, just need to know what's in our best interest? What do we want to do?

James

Below outlines his topic and an initiative LAPD wants to do with the Private Sector.

He says he would like to speak. He says he is very interactive.

One more thing...we have launched a Run, Hide, Fight response to an active shooter initiative in the city. We have included private security in our train the trainer classes and believe them to be a crucial piece of solving the active shooter dilemma.

If we all agree, we could allow him and his Team speak.

For the Professor, we get a commitment to the next event to speak and invite as our guest to this event.

Please let me know your thoughts.

Well educated, well traveled and well received by the law enforcement community. Her presentations are generally 2 hours. Please let me know if this is something the board interested pursuing.

All,
I just got off the phone with a Sergeant Campbell from LAPD. Much to James' credit we did need another speaker.

Below outlines his topic and an initiative LAPD wants to do with the Private Sector.

He says he would like to speak. He says he is very interactive.

One more thing...we have launched a Run, Hide, Fight response to an active shooter initiative in the city. We have included private security in our train the trainer classes and believe them to be a crucial piece of solving the active shooter dilemma.

If we all agree, we could allow him and his Team speak.

For the Professor, we get a commitment to the next event to speak and invite as our guest to this event.

Please let me know your thoughts.

The Sheriff will speak at about 0930. The registration will likely be 0730 to 8:30. I expect 200 to 300. It will be a working breakfast.

The California Endowment might be ideal in terms of parking and catering. I am going to ask Joe H to check.

Barry,

It's a state of the art facility located on Bixel St. just a couple blocks West of the 110. I don't mind making contact but I believe Banyon and Steve might have a relationship with management. If not and no one else does, I'll reach out.

James,

I have never been to LA Center Studios, but if you have and it's a good location, why not check price and availability if you have a contact there. If you don't have a contact, does anyone else on this email?

Also, if BofA is available, and if Ed Zeier has a contact there, we can simply limit the registration if necessary to the capacity of the theater.

Good afternoon
All,

I contacted The California
Endowment and was informed that on January 22, 2016, they will be closed. They also stated in order to utilize their facility there has to be a health care component and for a room to accommodate 200-300 people, it requires registration a year in advance.

The Sheriff
will speak at about 0930. The registration will likely be 0730 to 8:30. I expect 200 to 300. It will be a working breakfast.

The
California Endowment might be ideal in terms of parking and catering. I am going to ask Joe H to check.

Good afternoon
All,

I contacted The California
Endowment and was informed that on January 22, 2016, they will be closed. They also stated in order to utilize their facility there has to be a health care component and for a room to accommodate 200-300 people, it requires registration a year in advance.

The

Good morning All,

I realize we are all busy and preparing for the holidays but we definitely need to identify a venue for the upcoming LEAPS "Meet the Sheriff" meeting scheduled for January 22, 2016. Corey was able to confirm the availability of LACMA for that day although we would have to purchase their food. I just spoke with Banyon Hutter regarding LACS and the Bank of America Plaza and at this moment it appears that there is currently something scheduled at those locations.

Ed Zeier is waiting on call backs from Staples and City Club and Ed as soon as possible please let us know.

Thanks

Good morning All,

I realize we are all busy and preparing for the holidays but we definitely need to identify a venue for the upcoming LEAPS "Meet the Sheriff" meeting scheduled for January 22, 2016. Corey was able to confirm the availability of LACMA for that day although we would have to purchase their food. I just spoke with Banyon Hutter regarding LACS and the Bank of America Plaza and at this moment it appears that there is currently something scheduled at those locations.

Ed Zeier is waiting on call backs from Staples and City Club and Ed as soon as possible please let us know.

Thanks

Joe

LACMA is available on 1/22/15. I'm confirming the hours.

If this is the location, all food purchases must be made through Patina, which is relatively more expensive.

If available, do we want to consider the Los Angeles Center Studios (Downtown L.A.)?

They have a 400 seat theater and I recall Deputy Chief Downing using the facility in the Good afternoon

All,

I contacted The California
Endowment and was informed that on January 22, 2016, they will be closed. They also stated in order to utilize their facility there has to be a health care component and for a
room to accommodate 200-300 people, it requires registration
a year in advance.

The

I will unfortunately not be able to be here as I will be out of the country on a much-needed vacation. My partner, Lindy Fried Bradley, should be here and will be a happy host. Importance: High

All,

My fantastic Legal Assistant, Kathy Kuwashima, gave a call to Pickwick in Burbank. They can accommodate us. She told them we will have about 250 people, but they insist we eat their food and beverage. (Unfortunately we cannot bring-in our own.) Attached is the proposal. There are some errors, such as naming our law firm instead of LEAPS-LA as the customer. I have no idea how much negotiation there is. I know Ed Zeier and Dennis Hathaway are pretty good in that realm when it comes to the contracts.

Bottom Line: $5,588 for 250 attendees for a continental breakfast. Free parking. A/V (basic) is included. Room and setup included.

I am not the money guy so I will leave it up to you officers of the Board to determine whether this is something for us to do. I just saw that we are running out of time and options, so here is another option.

Jordan, who is taking point on this issue?

All the best,

Barry

DUPLICATE:

[I forgot to put the most important person, Joe Hopkins, on the email I just sent to the rest of you. I cut and pasted the "to" recipients from his email. My apologies, Joe.] Here it is again:

All,

My fantastic Legal Assistant, Kathy Kuwashima, gave a call to Pickwick in Burbank. They can accommodate us. She told them we will have about 250 people, but they insist we eat their food and beverage. (Unfortunately we cannot bring-in our own.) Attached is the proposal. There are some errors, such as naming our law firm instead of LEAPS-LA as the customer. I have no idea how much negotiation there is. I know Ed Zeier and Dennis Hathaway are pretty good in that realm when it comes to the contracts.

Bottom Line: $5,588 for 250 attendees for a continental breakfast. Free parking. A/V (basic) is included. Room and setup included.

I am not the money guy so I will leave it up to you officers of the Board to determine whether this is something for us to do. I just saw that we are running out of time and options, so here is another option.

Jordan, who is taking point on this issue?

All the best,

Barry

Jordan,

I think it's okay, but I would recommend a couple of changes.

1. Not everyone knows what Prop 47 is. So perhaps the title change to "Opening Our Prisons: The Impact of Prop 47" or something similar.
2. The fact that Sheriff McDonnell is our keynote should have his name in bold letters to draw attention. It's a big deal.
3. Is Noon the release time? I thought we said 11:30. It might make a difference.
4. The phone number for the leaps text is only 6 digits. Is this correct?

Otherwise, good to go!

Barry

I've made some edits and resized a couple of things to get it on one page. Need to clean up the box with. LEAPS in it.

And we need to shift the times. Jim doesn't speak until 9:30 so we need another speaker from the DA's office or change the times to cover Jim's speaking window.

Once we get that decided, we can go live with registration.

It may just be my copy, but here's my additional comments:

1. The part in the blue ribbon says "THE SEN/ENTEENTH ANN UAL" [bold is off and so is spacing and the V is missing.]
2. LEAPS just below the badges is cutoff at the top of all the letters.

If this is just on my Word document and not on anyone else's then please ignore.

I'm working with Ed Zeier right now on the Sponsorship Packages and the Sponsorship Cover Letter.

#yiv7054412970 Jordan, I think it's okay, but I would recommend a couple of changes. 1. Not everyone knows what Prop 47
is. So perhaps the title change to "Opening Our Prisons:
The Impact of Prop 47" or something similar.2. The fact that Sheriff McDonnell is our keynote should have his name in bold letters to draw attention. It's a big deal.3. Is Noon the release time? I thought we said 11:30. It might make a difference.4. The phone number for the leaps text is only 6 digits. Is this correct? Otherwise, good to go! Barry A. Bradley,

I've made some edits and resized a couple of things to get it on one page. Need to clean up the box with. LEAPS in it.

And we need to shift the times. Jim doesn't speak until 9:30 so we need another speaker from the DA's office or change the times to cover Jim's speaking window.

Once we get that decided, we can go live with registration.

It may just be my copy, but here's my additional comments:

1. The part in the blue ribbon says "THE SEN/ENTEENTH ANN UAL" [bold is off and so is spacing and the V is missing.]
2. LEAPS just below the badges is cutoff at the top of all the letters.

If this is just on my Word document and not on anyone else's then please ignore.

I'm working with Ed Zeier right now on the Sponsorship Packages and the Sponsorship Cover Letter.

I've made some edits and resized a couple of things to get it on one page. Need to clean up the box with. LEAPS in it.

And we need to shift the times. Jim doesn't speak until 9:30 so we need another speaker from the DA's office or change the times to cover Jim's speaking window.

Once we get that decided, we can go live with registration.

Thanks,

It may just be my copy, but here's my additional comments:

1. The part in the blue ribbon says "THE SEN/ENTEENTH ANN UAL" [bold is off and so is spacing and the V is missing.]
2. LEAPS just below the badges is cutoff at the top of all the letters.

If this is just on my Word document and not on anyone else's then please ignore.

I'm working with Ed Zeier right now on the Sponsorship Packages and the Sponsorship Cover Letter.

#yiv7054412970 Jordan, I think it's okay, but I would recommend a couple of changes. 1. Not everyone knows what Prop 47
is. So perhaps the title change to "Opening Our Prisons:
The Impact of Prop 47" or something similar.2. The fact that Sheriff McDonnell is our keynote should have his name in bold letters to draw attention. It's a big deal.3. Is Noon the release time? I thought we said 11:30. It might make a difference.4. The phone number for the leaps text is only 6 digits. Is this correct? Otherwise, good to go! Barry A. Bradley,

I've made some edits and resized a couple of things to get it on one page. Need to clean up the box with.
LEAPS in it.

And we need to shift the times. Jim doesn't speak until 9:30 so we need another speaker from the DA's office or change the times to cover Jim's speaking window.

Once we get that decided, we can go live with registration.

Thanks,

comments:

1.

The
part in the blue ribbon says "THE SEN/ENTEENTH ANN missing.]

2.

LEAPS

below the badges is cutoff at the top of all the letters.

If this is just on my Word document and not on anyone else's then please ignore.

I'm
working with Ed Zeier right now on the Sponsorship Packages

IMMEDIATE ATTENTION REQUESTED –

To All LEAPS Board Members,

Attached please find the new LEAPS Sponsorship Materials that hopefully all of you in the private sector can disseminate to your bosses, colleagues, vendors, contacts and friends. It consists of a generic letter and a separate form setting forth the different levels of sponsorship. (There is only one Patron Sponsor for the entire 2016, so I'm hoping one of you on the cc: line will be the first to commit!) Please take 3 minutes to familiarize yourselves with the materials. I am available to answer any questions, as is my partner, Lindy Fried Bradley.

PLEASE TRY TO DISSEMINATE THEM ASAP! (Sheriff Jim McDonnell will be speaking on January 22nd!)

Best,

Barry

#yiv7054412970 Jordan, I think it's okay, but I would recommend a couple of changes.
1. Not everyone knows what Prop 47
is. So perhaps the title change to "Opening Our Prisons:
The Impact of Prop 47" or something similar.2. The fact that Sheriff McDonnell is our keynote should have his name in bold letters to draw attention. It's a big deal.3. Is Noon the release time? I thought we said 11:30. It might make a difference.4. The phone number for the leaps text is only 6 digits. Is this correct?

Please look at the attached Badge Mock-up.... My recommendation is that we take out the City Seal perhaps we can develop our own two-eagle seal to symbolize LE and PS or a face-on "leaping" animal (like the attached Tiger Logo, but customized for us...)

Please respond with your suggestions.... I would like to use the badge on our symposium credentials....

Captain,

I like the idea of the new badge. LEAPS was originally just a single badge that looked like the LAPD shield, but said Police and Private Security. It morphed into the current two badges. Going back to a single newly-designed badge is a great call.

The mascot might be tough to conjure up quickly prior to the next Symposium. Leaping animals works (but probably not a kangaroo or frog ☺). This might require someone with far more artistic talent than me to comment on.

You have my thumbs up, for what it's worth.

Best regards,

Barry

Jordan et al,

The symposium will be closed to the media. The Sheriff will arrive at 9:30 and "work the room" from 9:30 to 10ish. He will take the lectern at 10ish. He needs to on the road to his next gig at 11.

I called their telephone numbers but received no answer.

Thanks

Subject: Re: LEAPS Partnering with the Cal-ORCA

Good afternoon,

There were only three individuals who provided me with their vehicle make, model, color and license plate number. Unfortunately, I was not able to arrange parking within police headquarters. I was able to arrange for those individuals to park at LAPD, Motor Transport Division located at 260 S. Main Street, Los Angeles, California 90012. Please inform the attendant that arrangements were previously made with Mr. Orvin Perez for you to park in visitor's parking.

Should there be any problems, please contact me on my cell: (213) 359-0250.

Thanks
Joe
